REPRESENTATIVES OF NATION IN MOURNING ARE AT OYSTER BAY TO PAY FINAL TRIBUTE TO ROOSEVELT

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Jan. 8.—Hundreds of men and women, representatives of a nation in mourning, gathered here today to pay their last tributes to Col. Theodore Roosevelt.

Trains were heavily delayed by a snow storm, but each one brought a throng—some of them invited, most of them not and content to stand outside Christ church or in the road during the service at the cemetery to show their respect.

Mrs. Roosevelt, who has borne up bravely since her husband's sudden death at 4:15 o'clock Monday morning, did not leave the house at Sagamore Hill, after the brief memorial there.

This observance consisted merely of a few prayers, uttered by the Rev. G. E. Talmadge.

The funeral procession from the house to the church was composed of 15 automobiles. Those assigned to the first carriage were Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, Mrs. Archibald Roosevelt, Mrs. Richard Derby and Mrs. Douglas Robinson.

Preceding the motor hearse by ten minutes, Captain Archie Roosevelt and Theodore Douglas Robinson went to the Ivy-covered church to make final arrangements. Every seat in the church was occupied and some stood in the rear and around the walls.

Christmas decorations—giving rise to thoughts of the holidays and good cheer—were still in place in this church. Evergreens were in the chancel and attached to the roof was a huge green Christmas bell.

A sleet storm swept over Oyster Bay as mourners gathered for the funeral. The weather was very bleak and gloomy, with a cutting wind.

Flowers, coming in on trains, and on motor trucks, were heaped in many rooms at the Roosevelt home—Sagamore Hill; they were piled up in the little church, and stacked in the Oyster Bay postoffice. This in spite of the family's request that there be no floral tributes.

A detachment of 24 New York patrolmen and a squad of mounted men—the latter officers who had been promoted by Roosevelt when he was New York police commissioner—were on the scene as a guard of honor.

Cablegrams were received from Kermit Roosevelt and from Theodore Jr., with the American forces in Europe, saying they had been notified of their father's death and probably soon would return to the United States. A movement was started today to collect funds for a monument to Roosevelt, to be set up in Oyster Bay.

Oyster Bay went into mourning as the funeral hour approached. Stores were closed. Many wore bits of crepe in their buttonholes. Roosevelt's picture, heavily crepe-bordered, made its appearance in many windows.

BALKAN STATES FORM LEAGUE TO KEEP THE PEACE

By Henry Wood.

Copyrighted 1919, by the United Press. Paris, Jan. 8.—The Balkans which have been considered the world's greatest war menace—and where the spark that started the biggest war of all time was kindled—have anticipated the league of nations by establishment of a similar organization.

This league within a league which was organized for the purpose of eliminating the Balkan war threat, will be known as the Balkan confederation.

Foreign Minister Politis, head of the Greek peace delegations, who made these facts known today, said the confederation would in no way interfere with the league of nations. He declared it was a necessary arrangement for handling the internal affairs of their particular corner of the world.

"Greece has reached a complete understanding with the Serbians, Romanians, Jugoslavs and Czechoslovaks regarding future cooperation in the Balkans," Politis said.

One report circulated today was that the automobiles came from Germany, and that it was a plot to aid Wilhelm to escape. Another report was that the automobiles were U. S. machines from Belgium and that the party consisted of newspaper men who wanted an interview.

"This will result eventually in perfection of the Balkan federation, which has been a definite Greek policy since 1892 when it was the principal point in the program for which Greece waged its war of independence. Later it was espoused by the statesmen, Krykoupi. Since 1910 it has been adopted and maintained by Premier Venizelos."

"The confederation's position toward Bulgaria is the same as President Wilson's attitude toward Germany. A place awaits Bulgaria in the confederacy when she shows her repentence and fitness for it. The reasons for Bulgaria's present exclusion are many."

London, Jan. 8.—Occupants of the two automobiles who were prevented by the burgomaster from seeing the former kaiser, Sunday night, said the American ambassador had sent them to speak to Wilhelm, according to an agency despatch from Amerongen today. The despatch said rifles were carried in one of the cars.

Over 25,000 men are unemployed in city of Detroit

Detroit, Jan. 8.—More than 25,000 men are unemployed in Detroit, and their number is expected to steadily increase, as the soldiers from France return home, according to Chester M. Culver, general manager of the Employers' Association of Detroit.

Millions of dollars worth of unapproved government contracts are being held by Detroit manufacturers, said Culver, and many plants are practically standing still, waiting for word from Washington.

A meeting of the executive committee of the Ohio State Brewers Association may be called next week to set in motion the machinery to call a referendum at the next fall election.

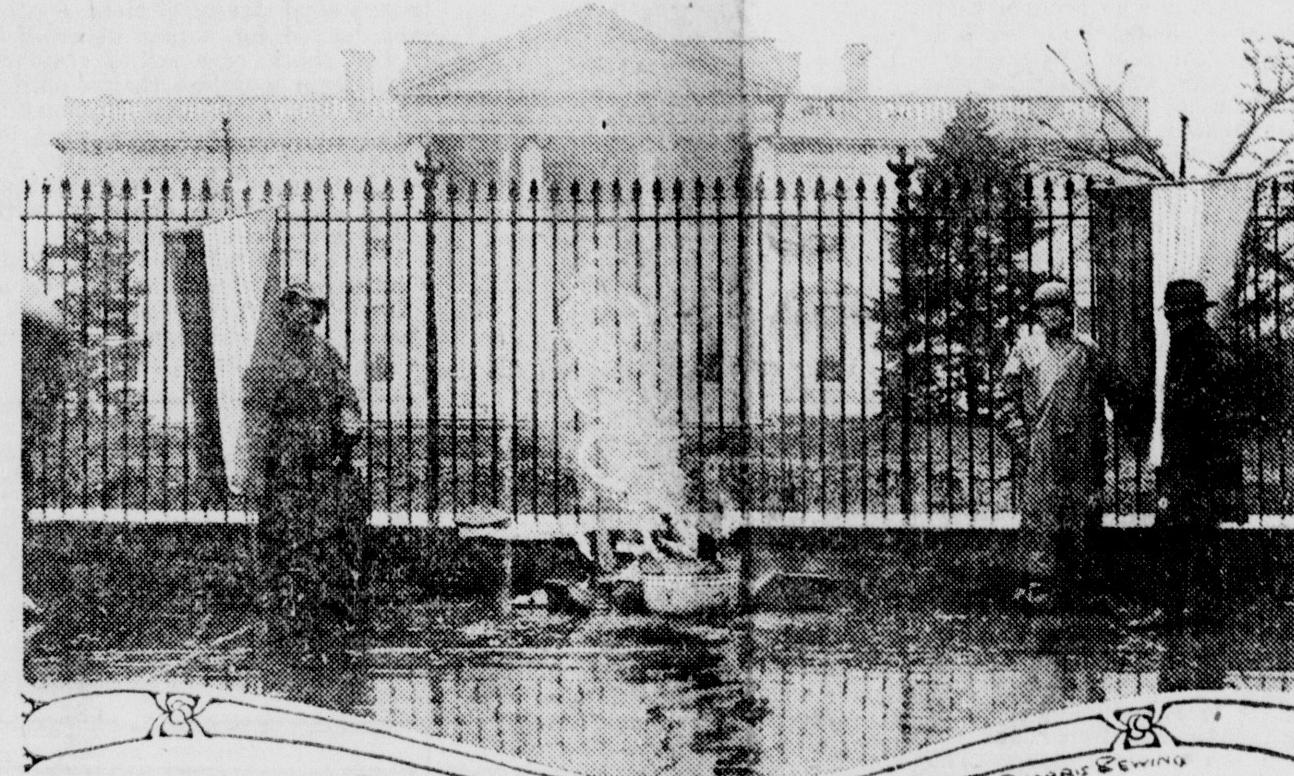

Dry leaders said today they were not "worried" by threats of a referendum as the voters of Ohio had registered their will for prohibition.

The very latest.

Boston, Jan. 8.—Black satin spats are the latest fashion in women's footware shown at the Boston Style Show here today.

Also, let it be known that high heels shall be worn; that colonial pumps with silver buckles are favorites and that high kid shoes of gray will predominate in spring wear.

SUFFRAGISTS ARE KEEPING THAT BONFIRE BURNING

In spite of rain, snow and occasional interference by the police and crowds, the suffragists who started a bonfire in front of the White House on New Year's day have kept it going. They are burning all of President Wilson's speeches made in Europe in which he refers to democracy. They claim that he is not representing a democracy, for no country which denies its women the right of suffrage can be rightfully called a democracy. When the above photograph was taken the sentinels were Miss Maude Jamison of Norfolk and Miss Betty Gram of Portland, Oregon.

CLEMENCEAU AND WILSON ARE APPROACHING AN UNDERSTANDING

Paris, Jan. 8.—Premier Clemenceau and President Wilson were believed today to be approaching some understanding regarding their apparently conflicting views on the balance of power and the League of Nations.

The two leaders certainly had an opportunity to exchange views on this matter, as a result of their unexpected meeting late yesterday in the offices of Colonel House. Great interest is attached to this meeting, as it was the first time Clemenceau and Wilson had met since the former's frank declaration in favor of retention of the balance of power, and the latter's simultaneous statement in Manchester that this ancient institution follows:

THEATERS

Orphium. Manager Binder struck twelve when he arranged for the coming of "Fit to Win," the picture endorsed by the United States Government Public Health Service, which has been creating a furor of interest wherever it has been shown. The picture is at the Orphium Thursday and Friday. Men only will be admitted all day Thursday, women only will be admitted Friday matinee and men only Friday night. No one under sixteen will be admitted.

The picture teaches a story that every one should know in a wonderful little plot with a cast headed by Raymond McKee, star of "The Unbeliever." The picture shows cantonment life as it really is and it tells the story of the two extremes—the fellow who keeps straight and the poor fool who must have a good time and its ultimate results. The picture is endorsed by President Wilson, Secretary Daniels and others, including the millions of people who have seen and undoubtedly benefited by it.

Bijou.

Constance Talmadge's sure-fire charm brightens up the decidedly good Select Picture "Mrs. Leffingwell's Boots," which is at the Bijou Thursday, morning, at 9 o'clock tomorrow, Wednesday, morning, adv 1-1.

Neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Barnett of West Market street, who are about to move into their new home, the McDonald property of West Third street, which they recently bought, bade them farewell from the neighborhood Tuesday evening, when they called in a body, surprising the family. There were about a dozen in the party, and the evening was passed very delightfully. Light refreshments were served.

INTEREST IN THE REVIVAL MEETING GROWING DAILY

The people who are attending the services at the First Methodist church keep talking of the revival of the evangelist, and of the music. The interest shown in the meeting and the progress made is remarkable. Last night, despite the bad weather, a large congregation had gathered, when the hour had come to begin the service, and they did not want to leave when the service had dismissed.

The evangelist preached on the possibility of faith in bringing men to Christ. He took for his text the gospel of the second chapter of Mark's gospel of the four who brought their sick friend to Jesus, and let him down through the roof into the very presence of Jesus, who, when He saw their faith, forgave the sins of their friend and healed him of his palsy. By apt illustration and graphic description from life and experience, Evangelist Harney showed how great is the possibility for all who would bring their friends and loved ones to Jesus. Faith, that is born of love, will overcome all obstacles, in tenderness and patience win the lost to Christ.

The evangelist called upon the congregation to pledge their pastors and him that they would do their best in the interest of the meeting and of saving souls, and asked all who would do so to come to the altar of the church and give their hands to the ministers. Great crowds came thronging down the aisles of the church, some singing and some weeping, till nearly all present had shaken hands in their plight of faith to do their best.

There is a most enthusiastic spirit in the meeting. Mr. Roper and the choir keep the music ringing. The evangelist in pressing home the truth will have the congregation laughing and then crying. Wednesday night will be apt to see a crowded house. Services at 7:15.

HORSE DIES AS RESULT OF BEING HIT BY AN AUTO HIT BY AN AUTO

Payne Jameson, living at 507 East Second street, received injuries to his left leg, and the horse he was driving died as the result of injuries sustained when an automobile driven by Jack Eavey collided with the Jameson buggy at Second and King streets, Tuesday evening.

Mr. Eavey was driving south on King street, and the buggy was going east on Second. The car struck the horse and knocked it against a telephone pole. The buggy was almost wrecked.

IMELY SUBJECTS ARE DISCUSSED AT CLUB MEETING

Mrs. Frank L. Smith was hostess to the Junior Women's club Tuesday afternoon, and a large number of the members enjoyed the afternoon at her attractive North King street home.

The program opened with the presentation of interesting bits of current events by members whose initials fall between A and K. Mrs. Charles L. Jobe read an exceedingly interesting paper, "Parks, Playgrounds and Community Centers," which provoked a lively discussion. Mrs. Jobe advocated the beautification of the city, not alone in a few sections, but in all sections.

For instance, Mrs. Jobe brought out the fact that every entrance to this city is disfigured by a public dump, thus creating a bad impression of the town in the minds of strangers. She also said that there should be receptacles provided on street corners for receiving waste paper and other rubbish, which is now cast freely upon the thoroughfares by most persons. She also spoke of the utter disregard of the anti-spitting ordinance, as a result of which the sidewalks are covered with expectorations and many an innocent passer-by is the victim of the careless "spitter."

The hostess, Mrs. Smith, read a paper upon the subject, which had originally been assigned to Mrs. A. C. Messenger, "How We Are Governed." This timely subject was the foundation for a very bright and up to date paper by Mrs. Smith. She touched upon all matters of local interest pertaining to matters of municipal government, and the recent report of City Manager Riddle was commented upon freely. An animated discussion followed this paper also.

The club in its program this year is touching more and more upon matters of local and state interest, and the subjects are upon matters in which a keen interest is being taken. Mrs. Jobe will be hostess at the next meeting, January 21, when the election of officers will be held.

The music at Mrs. Smith's home Tuesday was furnished by the Victoria.

OU'RE SKIDDING MISTER; BETTER PUT ON YOUR CHAINS

Put on your chains, you're skidding! Perhaps this is an unnecessary admonition to Xenia citizens, who have been describing hieroglyphics and executing jiu jitsu movements on the city's streets, since the weather man lowered his own stock by adding slippery pavements to the week's weather dish for this locality.

The soft, wet snow of Tuesday readily turned to water, which froze during the night, and converted the pavements into a veritable skating rink. Pedestrians who were not rough shod struggled along perilously and longed for a pair of arm hallowed shoes, or a set of crutches to help them maintain their equilibrium in the face of adverse circumstances.

New dance steps were used indiscriminately along with other forms of foot-travelling in order to move from one port to another, without holding onto the buildings. ## SOLDIER'S LETTER

Miss Glenna Ford of this city has received a letter from her brother Lieutenant Coit C. Ford, who is with the 368th Infantry, in France. He says in part:

"I have seen the hardships and the pleasures of this country. I have seen many cities, but I hope to be before leaving this country. I have been in Southern France to Marselles, the New York of France, Metz, the great history city, and Nancy, Tours, Rennes, Montlucon, and other cities.

"When I arrived in France, I landed at Brest, after leaving New York harbor, June 15, landing in France on June 27th. I came over on a ship by the name of Covington, a boat that had been captured from Germany. It was sunk on the way back to the United States. Fourteen large ship loads of soldiers came in the same fleet with us. The people over here say I speak French as well as some of them do. Some of them do not understand English, although English is spoken a great deal in the large cities. I have been in air raids and under artillery fire and a little gas, but am safe after all."

"The people over here are very sociable and nice. They are also very nice about teaching the boys their language. I have been to several socials and dances. The people dance so fast one can hardly keep up with them. The scenery over here is beautiful. I have been nearly all over France, have ridden on trains, horseback, motor trucks, touring cars and even walked. I hope to be in the U. S. soon."

"His address is "Lieut. Coit C. Ford, Co. G, 368th Inf., A. E. F., A. P. O., 766."

ABOUT THE WAY THINGS WILL WORK AT THE PEACE TABLE.

Paris, on the eve of the great Peace Conference, is the scene of the endless rejoicings over unprecedented victory, of feverish preparations for universal and lasting peace, and currents and undercurrents flowing in every direction.

The city is overcrowded with foreign visitors and they still keep arriving by hundreds, tramping about encumbered with grips from hotel to hotel, painfully seeking where to lay their heads. The sight of the world's leaders, of the renowned, the wise and the heroic, of successful financiers, industrial captains and self-seeking intriguers from foreign lands, brings vividly home to the observer the closeness of the relations that link together all the nations of the globe.

One and all, they are feeling their way during the brief span that separates them from the decisive trial of forces which will begin on Mr. Wilson's lucky day, the 13th. Hundreds of delegates have already gathered. It is believed the Great Powers will be represented by five delegates and the lesser States by two or three.

According to the procedure already agreed upon, the conference will have two stages, the first where only the spokesmen of the Great Powers will assemble to establish the outlines of the conditions to be imposed on enemy States. As the governments in question are already acquainted with each other's views, and have gauged the distance that divides each from the others, all that the first conference will do is to strike up a compromise understanding among the Great Powers.

It has been decided that Belgium and Serbia shall enjoy certain privileges, owing to the heroic part they played in the world war, and to the circumstances that the Great Powers are to some extent answerable for their sufferings. Rumania will be treated as a belligerent and ally and her enforced treaty with the Central Powers will be declared null and void. Russia may be consulted, but she will not possess accredited representatives.

The next stage will involve a change of scene from Paris to Versailles. The Teutons, who built up their empire at Versailles forty-eight years ago, will be condemned to witness the demolition of that empire, in the very same spot, a few weeks hence. Their appearance at Versailles will mark the imposition of the Allies' terms on enemy States and the elaboration of a preliminary treaty.

The treaty having been signed, everything not dealt with by the statesmen will be tackled by experts and special commissioners, to whom the completion of a political state system will be left. Thus, after Peace has been concluded and territories redistributed, numerous commissions will sit to debate and report for a long while to come on problems raised by the decisions of the conference.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

The Xenia Telephone Company which recently obtained a franchise from the city council, has not yet taken any action, owing to the difficulty of arranging a meeting because some of the parties from a distance can not come. It is expected it will get started soon however. It is stated that 5 or 6 local capitalists will be interested.

M. P. H. Flynn left yesterday for an Eastern trip in the interest of the Xenia Shoe Factory.

The fine new school house at Painterville, which was erected by Mr. W. Owens, of this city, will be dedicated next Saturday with appropriate ceremonies.

A number of the members of Dr. Carson's congregation gave him a surprise at his home yesterday, dinner being served and the occasion proving a most enjoyable one.

The gas well at Jamestown has now reached a depth of 600 feet and the machine is still clinging away in ceaseless manner. Jamestown citizens are wondering what they can do away with the old way of heating and lighting.

Mr. Clarence Barnes has been selected to fill the vacancy in the position of substitute mail carrier for the Xenia office and is now engaged in learning the work on the various routes. He will retain his position for a time as clerk at F. P. Jones & Co.'s store.

TEACH ALL THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE.

"One nation, indivisible," says the child standing at salute before the American flag. Yet where do we stand with regard to the strongest bond of all the many bonds that go to make a nation indivisible—a common speech?

Ten per cent of our adult population are unable to read the language of our country or understand it unless it is translated into some foreign tongue.

Of the "coming citizen" of this country eighteen per cent do not go to school at all.

Out of the first 2,000,000 men summoned by the draft 200,000 could not read their orders nor understand them, nor read the letters they received from their friends after they got to camp. For these men it was necessary to maintain a school at each army camp, to teach them English before they could be inducted any further into army life.

If the principles which mean America are to continue, education must increase. The man who cannot understand the English plea to him explaining the advantages of these principles, but who also does understand the enemy propagandist or agitator who addresses him in his own language, is going to follow alien ideals.

Says Mr. Lane: "There can be neither national unity in ideals or in purpose unless there is some common method of communication through which may be conveyed the thought of the nation."

"There is no other one thing so supremely essential to a government such as ours, where decisions of such importance must be made by public opinion, as that every man, woman and child shall know one tongue, that each may speak to the other, and all may be informed."

While the teaching of the English language is only a part of the business of Americanization, it is the fundamental, without which the rest of the structure must be insecure. We have been negligent too long about this great factor of our progress, it is time that men who speak with authority were heeded.

Joey Williams, the well-known American actress, who was recently playing at the Imperial Theatre in St. Louis, Mo., made the following statement about gray hair and how to darken it:

"Any one can prepare a simple mixture at home, at very little cost, that will darken gray streaked or faded hair, and make it soft and glossy. To a half pint of water add 1 ounce of bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound, and 14 ounce of glycerine. These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost, or any druggist can put it up for you. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. This will make a gray haired person look 20 years younger. This is not a dye, it does not color the most delicate scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off."

"That he never may come back," Ruth interrupted, "I know. Yet somehow I feel, Aunt Louisa, that he will not be wounded again. I feel so sure he will come back to baby and me."

"That is the right way to feel—it keeps you from worrying."

ROOSEVELT'S CAREER MOST EVENTFUL ONE OF GREAT AMERICANS

The late Theodore Roosevelt in his roughriding days, as a big game hunter in Africa, and the most recent photo of him.

The story of Theodore Roosevelt's life will go down in history as the most eventful one in the records of America's great men. The dominating note in Roosevelt's life was his powerful will and energy. He gained fame as an author, statesman, naturalist, explorer, scientist, lecturer and soldier. He served his country in the president's chair and other state positions, and on the battlefield.

To ask her if she was planning to remain with her after Brian returned. But she hesitated to do so, fearing her answer would be that she would go home when he came back.

In spite of her love for ease and for pretty things, Ruth had saved a surprising amount while Brian had been away. She still paid the rent of the apartment, but she often said laughingly that it was all she did pay; that her aunt ran the house. Then, too, Mrs. Clayborne was constantly buying clothes for both Ruth and the baby. She delighted in dressing them both. So, aside from her charitable work and the rent, Ruth had saved almost all of her salary. She had bought each issue of Liberty bonds; and had given to the Red Cross. But the greater part of her giving had been to her own pet charity—her war-babies.

After this talk with her aunt, she sat down and figured how much she had saved in various ways; and how much she could add to it in the next few months. Brian would have nothing to start with. His salary as a soldier, even as a commissioned officer, would scarcely be more than he needed; surely no more than he would spend, knowing she and the baby were having everything they wanted.

She had written much of her aunt's generosity, and had told Brian many times to spend his soldier's pay for comforts.

She was surprised to see that, by the time he returned—even if figured in months—how much money she would have at her disposal. She had a plan in her head which was to be a surprise for Brian.

She would fit up an office for him in a good location. To his slender law library, she would add books that he needed. He could start anew, feeling that they had money enough ahead so that his mind could be given to his work, without the worry he had before experienced about money.

She had said nothing of this plan to anyone, not even to her aunt. But as the papers reiterated their belief that peace was at hand, she thought more and more of the pleasure it would give Brian.

A WORD ABOUT THE KIDNEYS

BY DOCTOR WATSON.

People are easily frightened when they think something is the matter with their lungs or heart, and well they may be; but few people understand the dangers of diseased kidneys. These organs have a duty of vital importance to perform, and if they are diseased, there is no telling how or where the symptoms may appear. The kidneys are filters, and when they are healthy they remove the poisons from the blood and purify it. When the kidneys are diseased, the poisons are spread everywhere, and one of these poisons is uric acid.

Mr. Spencer says that he has a Ford car, and is prepared to answer hurry calls, so that owners and harboresses of unlicensed dogs had better get busy and pay the fee required to give their canines another year's lease of life, and save themselves from a $25 fine.

The time allowed by law for obtaining dog license for 1919, expired December 31. The county auditor will not enforce the penalty however until after the tax paying period, January 20. The dog catcher will start on his work promptly January 21, and the penalty will be enforced upon man and dog after that time.

Everyday Etiquette

"I wonder," sighed the young hostess, "if it is proper to place the lady at the right or the left of the man who is to take her in to the table."

RIDDLE TO HELP FRAME PLAN FOR FINANCIAL RELIEF OF CITIES

Recommendations to the General Assembly for legislative relief for municipalities throughout the state are to be framed by a committee of 11 city officials representing as many cities selected at a meeting of officials from more than 30 cities of Ohio held in Columbus Tuesday. Mayor H. L. Davis, of Cleveland, presided.

Selection of the representatives on the committee was left to the Mayors of the cities represented. The following comprise the committee:

City Solicitor Saul Zielonka, of Xenia; C. J. Neal, Director of Finance, Cleveland; Edgard L. Weinland, Councilman, of Columbus; Kenyon Riddle, City Manager of Xenia; J. S. Martin, Director of Finance of Toledo; J. E. Barlow, City Manager of Dayton; W. H. Brown, City Solicitor of Cambridge; A. J. Hannon, Mayor of Ironon; O. E. Carr, City Manager of Springfield; George E. Taylor, City Solicitor of Delaware; B. F. Robinson, President of Council, Bucyrus.

After the committee had organized, Chairman Barlow announced a meeting of the committee will be held in Columbus in two weeks to make the preliminary draft of legislation to be proposed to the General Assembly.

In the meantime, city officials throughout the state are requested to submit suggestions for probable relief. The preliminary draft will be sent to all municipal officials in advance of a general meeting to adopt final recommendations.

Various suggestions were submitted verbally to the committee in open session at the Tuesday meeting after J. S. Martin, Director of Finance, of Toledo, led a vigorous fight against a motion to limit suggestions to those filed in writing with the committee.

Mr. Martin urged the amendment of the Longworth act substituting a majority vote for the two-thirds majority required to carry bond issues and an amendment of the Smith law permitting cities to levy a tax for the next three years sufficient to redeem deficiency bonds issued to make up the deficit in current operating revenues during that period.

Amendments of the Smith law removing interest and sinking fund charges from the limitations of the law, changes in the automobile license law to enable municipalities to receive a portion of the revenue derived from taxing automobiles and motor trucks, resurrection of the poll tax and merger of city and county governments in Urban counties were among the suggestions offered at the conference.

The suggestion of Judge N. H. Barber, of Cambridge, that church property be taxed, drew a retort of Councilman John S. Sheehan, of Cincinnati, that if a tax were imposed on churches activities now promoted by the churches would be transferred to the municipalities, thereby increasing the burden.

Mayor Galvin, of Cincinnati, explained in detail the provisions of the occupational tax ordinance passed by the Council of Cincinnati, which is now pending in the Supreme Court. Action on all suggestions was referred to the Committee of Eleven.

Xenia was represented at the meeting by City Manager Kenyon Riddle, City Commissioners C. L. Frazer, J. T. Charters and H. M. Fisher, and Solicitor J. A. Finney.

Colds Cause Headaches and Pains
Feverish Headaches and Body Pains caused from a cold are soon relieved by taking LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE Tablets. There's only one "Bromo Quinine." E. W. GROVE'S signature on the box. 30c.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Most headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "loggy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. 10c and 25c a box. All druggists.

TOWN CLOCK FALLS DOWN ON ITS NEW YEAR RESOLUTIONS

True a week has passed since we set our New Year's resolutions down in black and white and then started to forget them, but who would expect the faithful old town clock to be the first to tumble off the wagon.

If it were not that the old clock has four dials we might call it two-faced, but under the circumstances it must be a plain case of trying to lay in the liquor before the supply runs out, for the time piece by which Xenia people have set their Ingersols, fed the cat and took their medicine for so long, has now gone suddenly astray, and while one side attempts to keep a bold front and cover up its own deceptiveness, the other side is acting as wayward as the village cut-up at a county fair.

Southerly speaking the clock is carrying out its duty as a good clock should, but gazing at the dial on the west it is wrong about as bad as the kaiser. For the better part of a week the hands on the Detroit street side have made little or no attempt to change their position and are content with registering anywhere between eight o'clock and half past eight.

Xenia people who rely on the city's Big Ben for the time are hoping he sobered up enough to get back in the straight and narrow path of duty before long.

TIMELY WARNINGS IN COLD WEATHER CARE OF TIRES

To the winter motorist who would reduce to a minimum his dismounts to repair tires under the unpleasant conditions of zero weather the B. F. Goodrich Rubber Co. offers some timely warnings regarding the cold weather care of tires.

The very first precaution against undue tire trouble is a rigid inspection of the casing for cuts and small holes, which should be plugged with tire putty. Tires should be kept water tight as protection against the wet, slushy roads and pavements. Water seeping into tire quickly rots and deteriorates the cotton fabric and causes blowouts.

A favorite place for rough frozen ruts and sharp pieces of ice to jab and slash a tire is the portion of casing between the rim and sidewall. Such punishment will be greatly reduced by proper and full inflation.

Riding the car tracks is a popular winter practice with motorists because he dodges packed ice and snow embankments near the curbing. This practice is not only dangerous but wears ridges in the side of the tire tread. Avoid car tracks and frozen ruts.

Do not apply anti-skid devices too tightly to tire just to eliminate the clanking and racket of the chains beating against the mud guards or fenders. Tires are cut severely by tight chains. Chains should also be periodically inspected and when the cross links become worn, rough or sharp should be removed and replaced.

COURT NEWS

William J. Baker has sued to enjoin the county treasurer from collecting the Rahn ditch assessment of $137.22.

Suit to enjoin collection of $76 assessment because of the Mangan ditch improvement was brought by James A. Crawford. The plaintiffs aver that they are not benefitted by the improvements. Miller and Finey attorneys.

On the grounds of gross neglect, Claud A. Herrick, a soldier in the mechanical department at Wright field, was given a decree of divorce.

THIS MAY HELP YOU

Home-Mixed Cough Syrup. Very Cheap. Very Effective.

Mrs. Joseph Meilleur, 445 Jefferson street, Tiffin, O., writes:

"I have used the Mentho-Laxene for colds. Must say I find it better than any cough syrup I have ever used yet. I coughed night and day for a week. After I got the Mentho-Laxene to use the coughing stopped in three days, etc."

Just buy a 21-2 ounce bottle of Mentho-Laxene (it is richly concentrated) and mix it with simple syrup, as per directions with bottle, and then you will have a whole pint of the finest, quickest cold, cough, and catarrh medicine you ever used, and no opiates or narcotics, either. Hundreds of thousands of people now make their own medicine to avoid expense and uncertainty.—Adv.

Now let's be honest with ourselves. Does it really pay to fuss and fume in a hot kitchen baking bread when there is so much other work to do—and on top of it, serve the family with old bread for the remainder of the week?

Why not have fresh bread every day and "real" bread, too—

and avoid waste and disappointment

Really, you can't imagine the great improvement in Krug's Bread since substitutes are no longer required.
